PREVIEWSworld.com

At first glance, PREVIEWS can be overwhelming because it's packed with tons of cool stuff. But there's a rhyme and reason to this mag-a-log and here's how to use it!

You now hold in your hands the latest issue of PREVIEWS, the monthly mag-alog dedicated to comics, graphic novels, toys and other pop-culture merchandise. If it's in your comic shop, it's in the page of PREVIEWS!

PREMIER COMICS BOOKS & MAGAZINES TRADING CARDS APPAREL MERCHANDISE GAMES VIDEOS

What is PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part magazine, part catalog—a "mag-alog" of all comics and pop-culture merchandise found at your local comic shop.

We've broken down the product listings by easy-to-understand sections: Comics & Graphic Novels; Books; Trading Cards; Toys, Statues & Models, and more.

Each month, you'll find detailed listings for almost every comic book and pop-culture product that will be available in comic shops in 2 months. So, if you're looking at the April issue of PREVIEWS, most items will be in comic shops sometime in June.

How do I order from PREVIEWS?

Ordering from PREVIEWS is easy! There are 3 simple ways to order:

1 Use the Short Order Form.
Fill in with the items you'd like to order from this issue.

2 Ask for the companion Customer Order Form.
We offer a companion order form that features a complete listing of every product offered in that month's issue of PREVIEWS. Fill out what you want to order and hand in to your comic ship by the due date on the cover!

3 Ask your retailer about their "Pull & Hold" service.
Many retailers offer a "pull & hold" or subscription service where you can order your monthly comics and merchandise easily. They'll hold your orders for you and you can pick up your items when it's convenient for you! Be sure to ask your retailer to give you a copy or PREVIEWS, Marvel PREVIEWS, and the PREVIEWS Customer Order Form each month so you can place your orders easily!

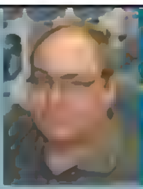
GIVING THANKS (YEAR SEVENTEEN)



EDITOR'S note

Another November. Another time to give thanks. I've been doing this every year since I took over as PREVIEWS' Editor, and I've been pretty much thankful for the same stuff every year. But this year, after a sobering wake-up call in the form of a week's stay in the hospital with heart problems, I'm thankful that I was given a second chance to live my life better and healthier, with the help of my doctors and modern medicine.

Of course, I'm also thankful for the continued opportunity to work with a great bunch of people here at PREVIEWS, in an industry I love, as your monthly host. Oh yeah, and these random things too…

I am thankful… for the chance to take a few days for myself and travel back to my home state of California each year to attend the San Diego Comic Con!
I am thankful… for my West coast pals Chris, Andy, Dwayne, Rob, Ross, Mike, J.R. and J.W.!
I am thankful… for my East coast pals Jeff, Tom, Dave, Rich, Mikey, Scott, Vince, and Michel!

And I'm also thankful for you, our faithful readers. You're the reason we go through all this effort, bringing you this tantalizing tome each month to offer you the coolest stuff on Earth.

Wherever you may find yourself this month, Happy Thanksgiving to you and all of yours!

Your Pilgrim Pal @ PREVIEWS,

Marty

P.S. Be sure to check out the all-new Archaia Entertainment section on page 238 of this issue. They've joined the ranks of other publishers invited to design their own solicitations each month, and I think we'll be seeing great things from them in the future.

@DanSlott Dan Slott
One of the joys of having a co-writer: It gives regularly harsh reviewers an out for liking something. Obviously the OTHER guy did THAT. :-)

@Ssnyder1835 Scott Snyder
I cannot express how crazy this JOKER story is. BATMAN #16 (just finished) is far & away the most twisted comic I've ever written. Promise.

@joe hill Joe Hill
I have completely exorcised the 21st century from my bedroom, where I have set up my typewriter and record player.

@Justin Jordan Justin Jordan
I just described a character as "muscle and fat and middle age mean" which made me smile. Not sure why, I just like the way it sounded.

@nealadamsdotcom Neal Adams
I just finished a very dramatic sequence in "First X-Men", (the 5th Issue). It won't make you cry, but it will make you slow down.

@Rob guillory Rob Guillory
The Secret Service is on Twitter. It's kinda like your Mom being on Twitter. If your Mom could make you un-exist and get away with it.

@RobertKirkman Robert Kirkman
I'm so glad I watched Sons of Anarchy last night! Please, please don't tweet me spoilers of my favorite show the morning after!

This month's featured creators is...

CHRIS DUFFY

Chris Duffy was born, raised, and educated in Massachusetts. He moved to New York to work in comics, which eventually happened as an amateur cartoonist and assistant editor at DC Comics in the mid-90s. After that, he spent 13 years as an editor at Nickelodeon Magazine — during which time he married, moved 50 miles north with his wife and son, and learned that you put something called "primer" on wood before you "paint" it. BONUS FACT: He believes Raggedy Ann & Andy Comics #1, published by Dell in the 1940s, is the finest comic ever published and will allegedly fight anyone who disagrees with him.

Chris Duffy, what are you currently working on?

My main job is editing SpongeBob Comics. It's a blast working with the show's creator and the comic's publisher — Steve Hillenburg. We have an amazing assortment of cartoonists and writers; everyone from James Kochalka to Gary Gianni takes a crack at depicting the denizens of Bikini Bottom. I'm so grateful and honored to be able to put together a humor comic book series for kids in this day and age. As for side-projects, I'm putting together Fairy Tail Comics, a follow up to Nursery Rhyme Comics. It's coming out next fall, and David Mazzucchelli, Jaime Hernandez, Raina Telgemeier, and Craig Thompson are just a few of the reasons I'm excited about it.

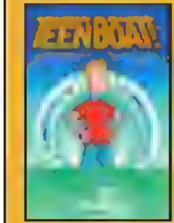
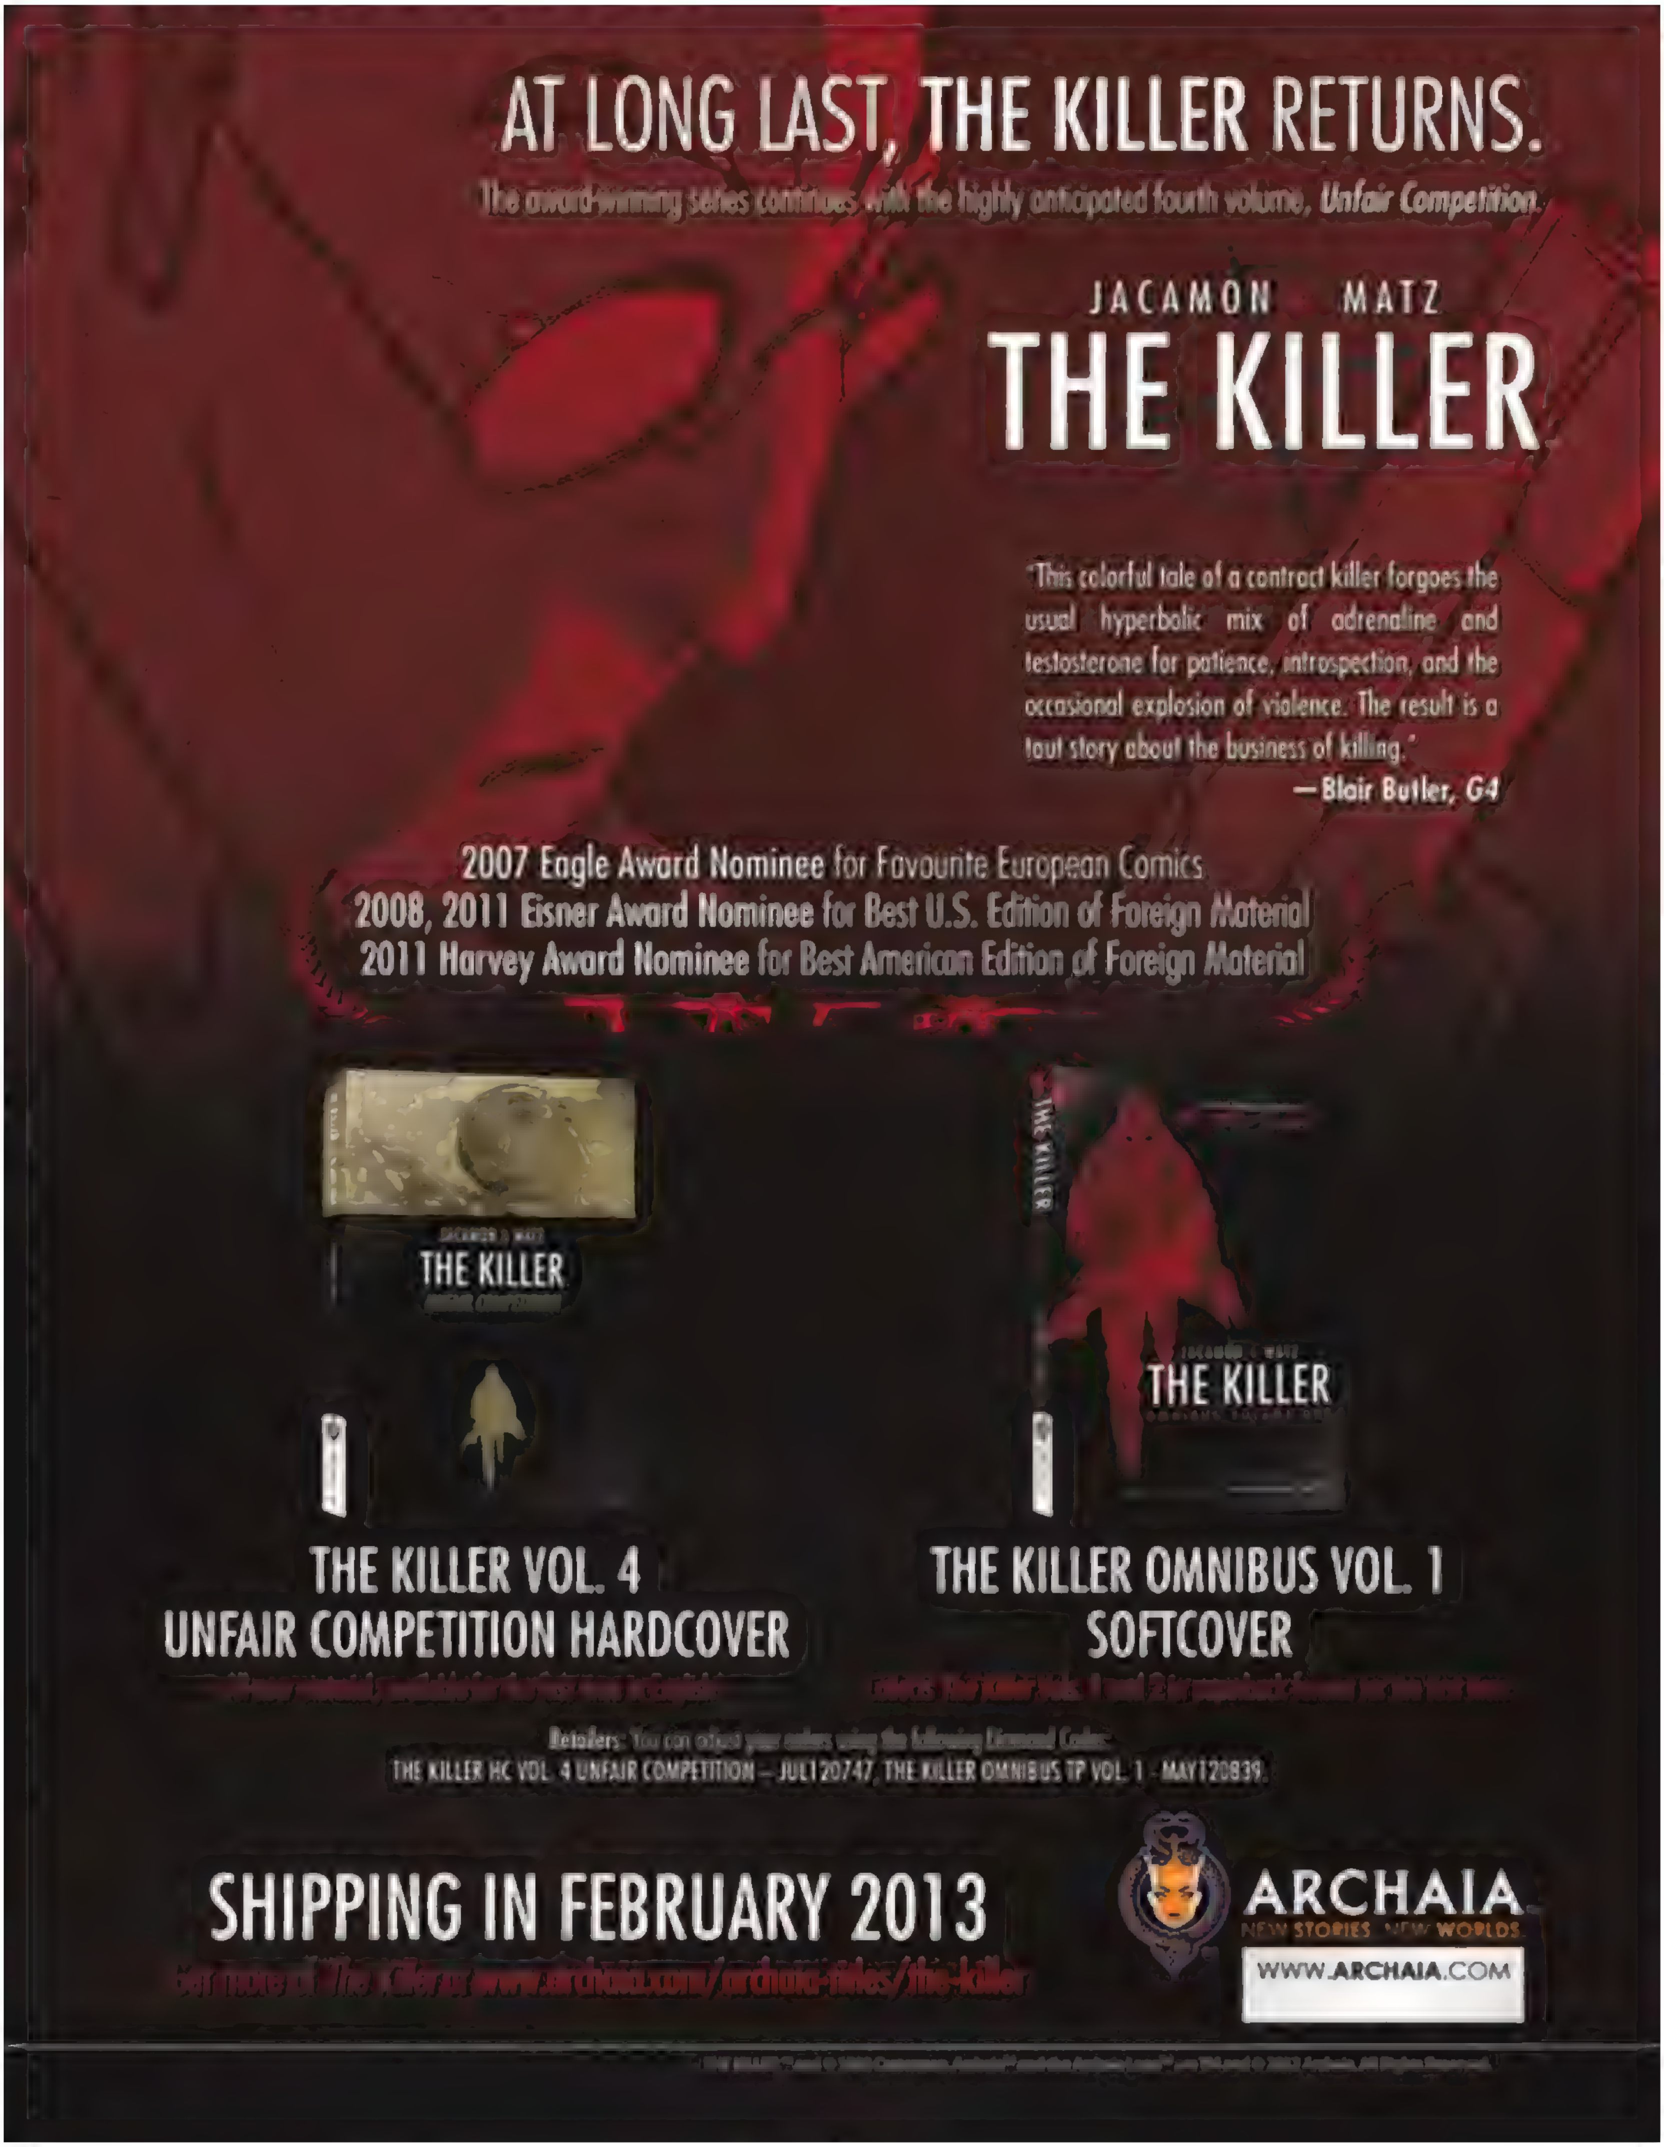
Chris Duffy, what are you currently reading?

Prison Pit by Johnny Ryan. Yes, I know I edit kids comics. But Prison Pit is fun the way the most addictive manga horror and action stories are. Yes, it's gross, but I can take it!
Prison Pit Volume 1 GN (AUG090885)



Teen Boat by Dave Roman and John Green. It's a young adult graphic novel about a teen who can transform into... yeah, you guessed it: A boat. This comic wears its metaphors on its sleeve (if that's possible), and is a smart, funny sea voyage graced with great art.
Teen Boat HC (FEB120895)

Jerusalem: Chronicles from the Holy City by Guy Delisle. I'm no world traveler, but I really like Guy Delisle's memoir / travelogue comics. His wife works for Doctors Without Borders and he has chronicled his family's extended stays in North Korea, Burma, Shenzen, and most recently, Jerusalem. It's informative, funny, and intimate stuff — with super-charming cartooning!
Jerusalem: Chronicles from the Holy City HC (FEB121003)



AT LONG LAST, THE KILLER RETURNS.

The award-winning series continues with the highly anticipated fourth volume, Unfair Competition.

JACAMON MATZ

THE KILLER

"This colorful tale of a contract killer forgoes the usual hyperbolic mix of adrenaline and testosterone for patience, introspection, and the occasional explosion of violence. The result is a taut story about the business of killing."

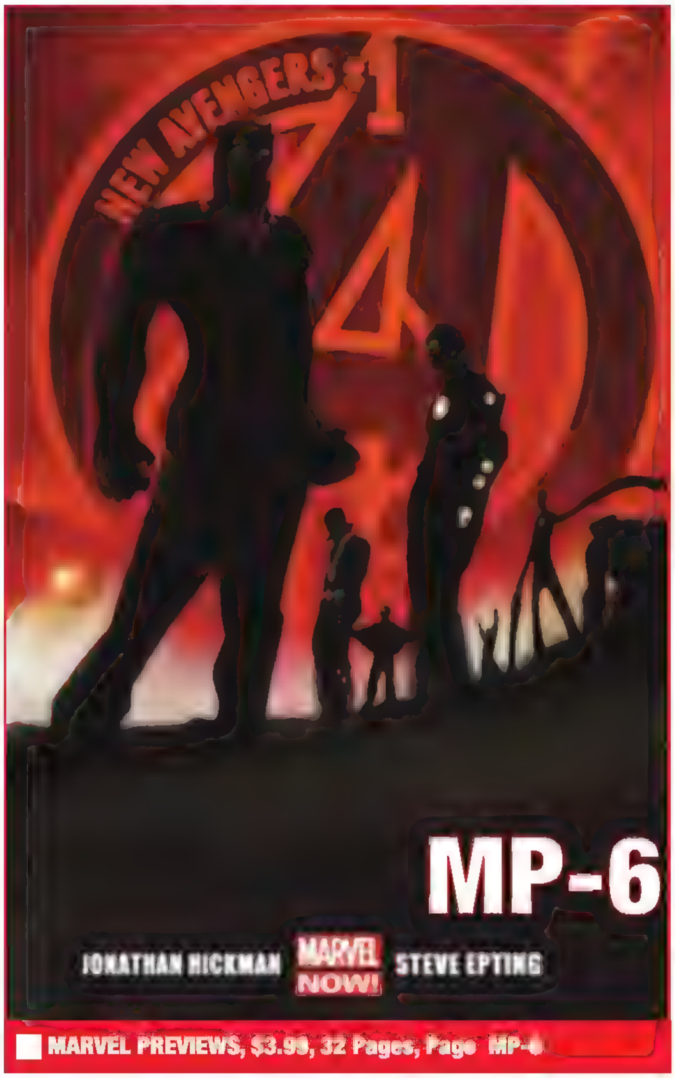
THE MULTIVERSE AWAITS FOR THE NEW AVENGERS



For years the brightest minds of the Marvel Universe have gathered together to confront some of the gravest threats Earth has faced. As the Illuminati, this group of heroes — Black Bolt, Doctor Strange, Iron Man, Mr. Fantastic, Namor, and Professor X — operated behind the scenes to pool their knowledge and best direct their teams when danger loomed, until the day came that personal divisions and controversial decisions tore the Illuminati apart. With the universe itself threatened with disaster, the idea of the Illuminati — the brightest minds the Marvel Universe has ever seen — is resurrected with a new name — the New Avengers — for Marvel NOW! in Jonathan Hickman and Steve Epting's New Avengers #1!

When the Black Panther discovers that another universe is on the verge of colliding with ours, he calls upon some of the Marvel Universe's greatest minds — Iron Man, Doctor Strange, Black Bolt, Mr. Fantastic, Namor, and The Beast — and joins with them, as he would not with the Illuminati, to find a way to prevent a cosmic cataclysm. Calling themselves the New Avengers, this team of the Marvel Universe's brightest and most technologically adept heroes must embark on a harrowing quest through the multiverse to prevent the universe's destruction!

Jonathan Hickman and Steve Epting, the creative team behind the acclaimed Fantastic Four storyline "Three," resume their partnership for a book that will take readers on mind-blowing journey through infinite realities with the fate of all creation at stake. Once more Hickman displays his deft touch by melding characterization with cosmic concepts, and Epting's pencils bring the multiversal adventure to life on the page. Together, they will make New Avengers a standout book in the Marvel NOW! relaunch, and the saga begins this January!

WHEN THE UNIVERSE IS THREATENED WITH DESTRUCTION, BLACK PANTHER MUST ASSEMBLE A TEAM OF HEROES TO TRAVERSE THE MULTIVERSE IN SEARCH OF A SOLUTION!

"A long time ago, in a galaxy far, far away..." Those words have fired the imaginations of millions worldwide since they first appeared in movie theaters in May 1977 and made Star Wars a worldwide phenomenon. This January, Dark Horse Comics returns the classic era of the original Star Wars film — the Rebel Alliance operating from secret bases, the Galactic Empire striking throughout space, Luke Skywalker discovering how to be a hero, and Darth Vader directing the Imperial war machine — for a book that could only be called Star Wars! Written by Brian Wood (The Massive, Conan, Northlanders) with art by Carlos D'Anda and a painted cover by legendary artist Alex Ross, Star Wars #1 will make every fan of George Lucas' space opera feel like an excitable child again! It's derring-do on a galactic scale when Dark Horse Comics takes readers back to a long time ago, in a galaxy far, far away!

ROBERT KIRKMAN'S INVINCIBLE CELEBRATES ITS 100TH ISSUE

Mark Grayson was the son of the world's greatest super-hero — Omni-Man. Inheriting his father's powers of super-strength and flight, Grayson decided to become a super-hero, Invincible, sworn to protect the Earth. As a teenager, Mark has to deal with all the typical teenaged problems — school, girls, parents — only with the added wrinkle of dealing with super-heroes, super-villains, and alien invasions. In January, Robert Kirkman's Invincible reaches its centenary issue with an oversized issue that brings Mark to a crossroads in his life. Will he become the hero he should be, or will he find a different path in his life? The issue comes with a series of covers from an all-star line-up of creators — Invincible artist Ryan Ottley, Cory Walker, Marc Silvestri, Bryan Hitch, Arthur Adams, and Charlie Adlard. Invincible #100 is the essential turning point in Robert Kirkman's super-hero epic, and it's something that no fan of the series will want to miss!

In the late 1910s, Sidney Smith developed a formula of the daily strip that would make The Gumps one of the most popular comics of the 1920s and himself one of the richest cartoonists of his day. By the end of the decade Sidney Smith's The Gumps had secured a huge and loyal audience with a decade of melodrama, adventure, mystery, and comedy. In 1928-29, with the launching of what would be his most famous story, "The Saga of Mary Gold," Smith's relationship to his readers would be tested as never before. Its heartbreaking conclusion would change comics forever. Here for the first time since the story made headlines across America in the spring of 1929 we reprint the saga that Hogan's Alley magazine called "One of the Ten Biggest Events in Comics History"—a tale that has lost none of its power to captivate readers in the 21st Century.

THE THIRD DEGREE

PAUL POPE

What are you working on right now?
I just wrapped Battling Boy for First:Second. I have a few dogs in the film fight, let's see if those things pan out. I am immediately moving onto my book Psychenaut, for Dargaud, my French publisher. A book about dreams and Carl Jung's theories of dream interpretation.

What's the best part of your job?
The war of art....! It's not always easy, but it's a good fight. So glad people care enough to pay attention.

What's the worst part of your job?
The uncertainty and the isolation. Social anxiety. That's probably just the human condition, though.

How did you first discover comics?
1975, I had the flu. I was five. My pop came back from hockey camp in Ontario with a big busted lip under his moustache and a copy of Kirby's Bring On The Badguys. I fell in love with Thor and Doctor Doom. I started drawing superheroes on my bedsheets right after that with a blue Bic marker.

If you weren't working in comics, what would you be doing?
I don't know. It's hard to imagine doing anything else....

What's the best thing a fan has ever said to you?
Probably the times you meet someone who says they read your books with their kids. That is really meaningful. I like meeting people, everyone has something to say.

I did, however, just find out that I met Jordie Bellaire, colorist on Mara, at some show when she was THIRTEEN and sold her a copy of one of my books. I've never felt older.

Who is the biggest influence on your work?
My influences would include Moebius, Alex Toth, Kirby, Crepax....Frank Miller and Jeff Smith....Picasso.

What is the single work of which you're most proud?
I'd say Battling Boy, since it is the most vital and fresh for me. I keep trying to improve.

Own up to one of your guilty pleasures.
I love Bing Crosby Christmas tunes. I love walking in the snow and having cold feet. I love the corny Japanese moog composer Isao Tomita.

What was the last comic book you bought?
I bought the recent Dark Horse collection of Richard Corben's work for Eerie and Creepy....that is some amazing stuff.

If you could be someone else for a day, who would it be?
Honestly, I'd not change places with anybody....if I could have dinner with someone, I'd think Mark Twain or maybe Orson Wells or Mickey Rourke or Nick Cave might be good company.

Pick three things you couldn't live without.
Family, Health, Music.

What's the strangest thing you have in your house?
My lady is a circus performer and builds her own rigs. At the moment, we have an 8 foot tall metal crescent moon with LED displays set up in the living room.

What makes you laugh?
I love the dumb jokes kids tell, like, "two sausages are in a frying pan...." Jokes like that.

What is one of your favorite places?
The island Capri off the coast of Italy. Tokyo. NYC. Ontario. Alaska.

What music are you listening to these days?
I listen a lot lately to Einsturzende Neubauten, Alice Coltrane, Beethoven, Grinderman, and Ravi Shankar.

What is your favorite film of all time?
A tough one...I would likely say Andrei Rublev, by Tarkovsky. Close seconds-- Ran by Kurosawa, Kubrick's The Shining. Holy Mountain by Jodorowsky.

Who is your best friend?
Kostas, Harvest, and Pascoe. Scott. Erika.

What is the best advice you've ever received?
"No masterpiece was ever created by a lazy artist" --Salvadore Dali

When was the last time you were truly frightened?
Anytime I'm in a car or on an airplane.

Who is someone you really admire?
Muhammad Ali, Louise Nevelson, Nick Cave, Picasso, Jeff Smith. Miles Davis. Ursula LeGuin. Ian Astbury. Kostas Seremetis.

What would you like to see happen in comics in the next 12 months?
I want to see more badass comics, more artists and writers taking the wheel of their own ships, more editors and publishers backing new dreams and visions, more young people getting into comics, both as readers and as makers.

THE DISTURBINGLY PERVERTED DIARY OF DOKTORMENTOR: JAIL BABE SURGEON VOLUME 1 TP

Shh! Productions

What happens when you combine a Playboy magazine with a horror film and put it in comic book form? It turns out, the result is a strange, hybrid concept that has to be seen to be believed.

Far outside the realm of "normal," Doktormentor isn't anything close to the other comic books you may have read. The titular character, a grotesque mad scientist, is looking to conduct fiendish experiments on the sexy but unlucky inmates serving "hard time" in this all-female-prison. Like a strange, late-night cable movie you can't help but watch, this group of half-naked prisoners attempt to avoid the scientist's clutches all while scheming for escape and "entertaining" themselves and each other during their down-time.

You can't take it seriously but the book isn't asking you to. This book is only concerned with fun and some of it is even more so in 3-D! Sure, there are erotic movies, there are monster movies, and there are women-in-prison movies, but when was the last time you heard of an erotic, women-in-prison movie with monsters?

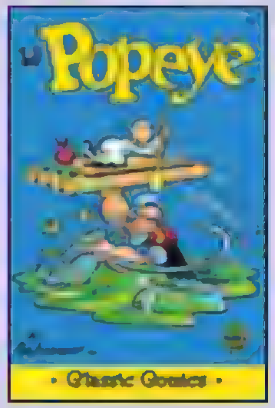
CLASSIC POPEYE #6

IDW Publishing



I was not a Popeye fan growing up.As a kid, I didn't understand what was so appealing about his weird arms, weird voice, or weird girlfriend. So I was completely taken by surprise this summer when I picked up Classic Popeye #1, opened to a page at random, and found myself laughing out loud.

My childhood convictions were at least partially right. Popeye is weird! He's absurd and zany and a little bit ironic.When Popeye finds his Pappy in bed eating a mountain of sweets for "lunch," or when Swee' Pea bursts through a door to pop a traveling salesman in the nose, it's truly, visually funny.This book is full of great visual punchlines that take full advantage of the graphic storytelling format, beautifully reproduced on quality paper stock. Editors Craig Yoe and Ted Adams clearly care about this project, and so will you. Former serious kids of the world, skip your therapist this week and pick up this book. Popeye is tons of fun.

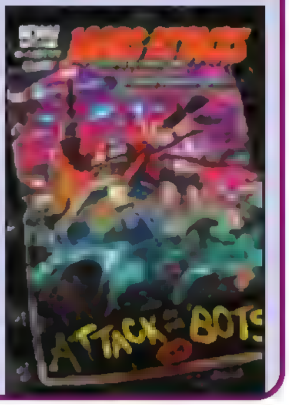
MARS ATTACKS THE TRANSFORMERS

IDW Publishing



They're big, they're green, they're from Mars…and they're taking on the Transformers! New from IDW Publishing, Mars Attacks the Transformers.

One of the latest offerings from IDW Publishing continues crossing their popular licensed properties to create new series and new storylines. Nowhere is safe for everyone's favorite robots in disguise as the Autobots and the Decepticons band together against the big-headed space bullies.This peaks my interest because I've been enjoying their new ongoing Mars Attacks series and I've been a long-time fan of their Transformers series.

Are you Team Green or Team Machine? Neither? Well IDW also has ponies.Winning!

THE DEBUT NOVEL FROM AWARD WINNING,
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING COMIC BOOK WRITER J.T. KRUL!

"I've lost my marbles."

When fourteen year-old Angie hears these simple words uttered from her aging grandfather's lips, she has no idea that it will send her on a journey into a hidden world of magic born from childhood imagination - one that bonds each and every one of us to our own unique spark, a special talisman with wondrous powers. Like many over the years, Angie forgot about her spark, as her mind grew cluttered with the challenges of life, the stresses of school, and the tragic loss of her mother.

Now, Angie will need all her strength and courage as she rediscovers this world because there is a secret danger whispering in the shadows. Her grandfather was wrong. He didn't lose his marbles. They were stolen from him, and if Angie isn't careful, she could be next.

An adventurous tale of wonder, The Lost Spark celebrates the magic of childhood - the fantasy of imagination, the darkness of the unknown, and the beauty of friendship that knows no bounds. Prepare to enter a world both familiar and new, and one that you'll never want to leave.

DAN THE UNHARMABLE VOLUME 1 TPB

Retail Price: $19.99
Writer: David Lapham - Art: Rafael Ortiz
Cover: David Lapham MR, Color, 160 pages

About: Whether you're looking for a detective, hired muscle, a blackmailer, or bedroom entertainment for the ladies, Dan's your man. He's not afraid of anything, and why should he be? He's completely invincible. You can beat him with a lead pipe, stick him in the oven, throw him off a bridge, or shoot him in his noggin, and it's all the same to him. All he needs out of life is just enough cash to keep him in cigarettes and beer for a night or two, and beyond that, he doesn't have a care in the world. But Dan's bohemian paradise is all about to change. Back before he was so unharmable, he left a few loose ends. Now those loose ends are growing up and their mother's been murdered, which not only means that Dan has to solve his most personal case yet, but he's now legally responsible for four human beings who are anything but unharmable... This first volume collects the complete first story arc from issues 1-6 of Dan the Unharmable. Explosive crime noir as written by a master of the genre, Eisner Award-winner David Lapham!

LISA'S STORY: THE OTHER SHOE
(W/A/CA) Tom Batiuk
Originally a "gag-a-day" comic strip that portrayed life in high school, Funky Winkerbean has evolved into a mature series of real-life stories examining such social issues as teen dating abuse, teen pregnancy, teen suicide, violence in schools, the war in the Middle East, alcoholism, divorce, and cancer. In 1999, Lisa Moore, one of Funky's friends and a main character, discovered she had breast cancer. After a mastectomy and chemotherapy, Lisa was cancer free. Then, in the spring of 2006, the cancer returned and metastasized. Lisa's Story: The Other Shoe is a collection of both the 1999 comic strips on Lisa's initial battle with cancer and the current series examining her struggle with the disease and its outcome. AYA: LOVE IN YOP CITY VOLUME 2 GN

(W) Marguerite Abouet (A/CA) Clement Oubrerie

Aya: Love in Yop City comprises the final three chapters of the Aya story, episodes never before seen in English. When a professor tries to take advantage of Aya, her plans to become a doctor are seriously shaken, and she vows to take revenge on the lecherous man. With a little help from the tight-knit community of Yopougon, Aya comes through these trials stronger than ever. This second volume of the complete Aya includes unique appendices: recipes, guides to understanding Ivorian slang, street sketches, and concluding remarks from Marguerite Abouet explaining history and social milieu. BIG QUESTIONS SIGNED & NUMBERED HC (2ND PRINTING)

(W/A/CA) Anders Nilsen

A haunting postmodern fable, Big Questions is the magnum opus of Anders Nilsen, one of the brightest and most talented young cartoonists working today. This beautiful minimalist story details the metaphysical quandaries of the occupants of an endless plain, existing somewhere between a dream and a Russian steppe. A downed plane is thought to be a bird and the unexploded bomb that came from it is mistaken for a giant egg by the group of birds whose lives the story follows. The indifferent, stranded pilot is of great interest to the birds—some doggedly seek his approval, while others do quite the opposite, leading to tensions in the group. This new printing is signed and numbered by the author. (STK443212) (C: 0-0-1)

CLASSIC COMIC STRIP REPRINTS

In 1963, Canadian cartoonish Doug Wright introduced the world to Nipper, the mischievous little kid who starred in the ingenious and enduring comic strip. These volumes cover a peak period in Wright's four-decade career as he comes into his own as an iconic cartoonist capable of documenting middle-class suburban existence in all its minute joys and indignities. (W/A/CA) Adrian Tomine

The 2007 New York Times Book Review Notable Book, lauded for its provocative and insightful portrayal of interpersonal relationships, was one of the most acclaimed books in recent years. Tomine tackles modern culture, sexual mores, and racial politics with brutal honesty and lacerating, irreverent humor, while deftly bringing to life a cast of painfully real antihero characters. AYA: LIFE IN YOP CITY VOLUME 1 GN

(W) Marguerite Abouet (A/CA) Clement Oubrerie

Ivory Coast, 1978. It's a golden time, and the nation, an oasis of affluence and stability in West Africa, seems fueled by something wondrous. Aya is loosely based upon Marguerite Abouet's youth in Yop City. It is the story of the studious and clear-sighted 19-year old Aya, her easygoing friends Adjoua and Bintou, and their meddling relatives and neighbors. It's wryly funny, breezy account of the simple pleasures and private troubles of everyday life in Yop City. (STK467838)

ED THE HAPPY CLOWN HC

(W/A/CA) Chester Brown

In the late 1980s, the idiosyncratic Chester Brown (author of the much-lauded Paying for It and Louis Riel) began writing the cult classic comic book series Yummy Fur. Within its pages, he serialized the groundbreaking Ed the Happy Clown, revealing a macabre universe of parallel dimensions. Ed the Happy Clown is a hallucinatory tale that functions simultaneously as a dark roller-coaster ride of criminal activity and a scathing condemnation of religious and political charlatanism. JERUSALEM: CHRONICLES FROM THE HOLY CITY HC

(W/A/CA) Guy Delisle

Guy Delisle expertly lays the groundwork for a cultural road map of contemporary Jerusalem, utilizing the classic stranger in a strange land point of view that made his other books, such as Pyongyang, required reading for understanding what daily life is like in cities few are able to travel to. In Jerusalem: Chronicles from the Holy City, Delisle explores the complexities of a city that represents so much to so many. He examines the impact of the conflict on the lives of people on both sides of the wall while drolly recounting the quotidian: checkpoints, traffic jams, and holidays. When observing the Christian, Jewish, and Muslim populations that call Jerusalem home, Delisle's drawn line is both sensitive and fair, assuming nothing and drawing everything. JINCHALO GN

(W/A/CA) Matthew Forsythe

Jinchalo is Korean for "Really?" and that question is at the heart of this book. When the mischevious shapeshifter Jinchalo hatches from a mysterious egg, he starts our heroine adventuring anew. Magical troubles drag the pair out of the safety of her home. These comics are firmly rooted in Korean folktakes and stylistic conventions, with a playful, joyous line to create a Miyazaki-tinged dreamscape where spotted octopi fly and bears give piggyback rides. THE INITIATES

(W/A/CA) Etienne Davodeau
Etienne Davodeau is a comic artist. He doesn't know much about the world of wine-making. Richard Leroy is a wine-maker. He's rarely even read comics. But these two are full of good will and curiosity. Why do we choose to spend one's life writing and creating comics or producing wine? For more than a year, Etienne went to work in Richard's vineyards and cellar. Richard, in return, leapt into the world of comics. They opened a lot of bottles and read many comics. They traveled around, meeting authors and wine-makers sharing their passion for their jobs. The Initiates explores the nature of a man's vocation with a true life representation of it from two very different perspectives.

LISA'S STORY: THE OTHER SHOE

Black Squirrel Books/Kent State University Press

There's nothing funny about cancer and I usually didn't find much funny about Funky Winkerbean. Lisa's Story: The Other Shoe surprised me with how much I needed to read it. This collection of Funky Winkerbean daily and Sunday strips focuses on Lisa Moore, a friend of Funky, and her fight against breast cancer, recovery, relapse, and tragic death.

If cancer has hit your family as it has mine, you will have an ever greater appreciation for what Tom Batiuk has accomplished with Lisa's Story. It makes me appreciate those in my family that have survived and remember and miss those who didn't.

Lisa's Story: The Other Shoe from Kent State University's Black Squirrel Books is a book that deserves a place in your library, school library, and your church or synagogue. This storyline shows us all that comics when done right are capable of entertainment and education and can make you care about the characters. In this book there is resource material on breast cancer, including early detection, information sources, support systems, and health care.

Collecting the first five issues of this series, this massive nod to vintage pulp fiction and exploitation films uses photos to tell the (maybe) true stories from inside Lake Erie's infamous womens's prison, documented by the mad prison doctor, Doktormentor. Female inmates are disappearing one by one and it's easy to gues who is responsible when his face and name are on the cover of the book. 3-D glasses included. Also available is a special edition combo pack that includes an autographed copy of the book by Peter Pants, plus an all-new DVD with featurettes, striptease music videos, and behind-the-scenes footage. DARWIN: A GRAPHIC BIOGRAPHY GN

(W) Eugene Byrne (A/CA) Simon Gurr

Presenting Charles Darwin's life in a smart and entertaining graphic novel, Darwin: A Graphic Biography attempts to not only educate the reader about Darwin but also the scientific world of the 1800s. The graphic medium is ideal for recreating a very specific time frame, succeeding in placing the reader right next to a young Darwin on a "beetling" expedition. With specimens in both hands, and anxious to get another, Darwin ends up stuffing the third beetle into his mouth. The ups, downs, and near-misses of Darwin's youth are portrayed honestly. Darwin wasn't somehow predestined to greatness. He was curious, patient, and meticulous. He persevered. Now the boy his poppa called "Stump" is about to become more man than he could've ever imagined. But then, what exactly is a "real man?" For that matter, what's a real hero? Takao Kasuga is a bookworm. And his favorite book right now is Baudelaire's Flowers of Evil. Nakagawa is known as the class bully. When she is not receiving zeros she is usually muttering profanities to those around her. While she doesn't care for books or their readers, she does have a thing for troublemakers. Takao may not be one, but having read over his shoulder a few times, she knows he is not very innocent. Together, by chance, they shake up their entire rural community as Takao tries to break out of his shell (STK519688) (C: 0-1-2)

CURSES! FOILED AGAIN

:01 First Second

Reading like a novel from Jim Butcher's Dresden Files series, Curses! Foiled Again is the sequel to 2010's Foiled. Writer Jane Yolen combines her knowledge of Olympic fencing, urban fantasy, and throws in a compelling mystery to sweeten the pot. Aliera Carstairs must juggle high school, parents, and manage her new troll bodyguard all while meting out justice to a hoard of mythical beasties by way of her enchanted fencing foil.

As a foil fencer just starting to test the waters of competitive fencing I couldn't resist picking this book up. Fencing is a very anonymous sport. Our faces are always hidden behind protective masks during bouts and it is exceptionally rare to find televised tournaments outside of the Olympics. Curses! Foiled Again brings attention to the sport and offers up a compelling coming of age story that kept me glued to the book until the end.

LANDMARK PEOPLE & EVENTS: COMIC INDUSTRY ASSOCIATES

The success of Graphitti Designs was a fluke!! Comics merchandise (other than the mass market stuff that trickled out on an irregular basis), was virtually non-existent. The concept of producing cool comics-related products that I wanted and would be willing to purchase, was at best half-baked. I blindly dove into producing our first shirts without having any sort of realistic longterm plan. Other than producing quality products that were artistically driven, the rest was unwritten. The more I immersed myself into the business end of comics, the clearer my objectives (and obstacles) became. The education and inspiration provided by the people I came into contact with (everyone from the creators, to the publishers, to the distributors and retailer, and to the customers), created the path for me to follow. The response we received from the retailers and the fans sent a clear message that we were on the right path. We were able to produce the comics related products we wanted while successfully sustaining and growing our business. Together you helped us usher in the merchandising of comics. Thank you all.

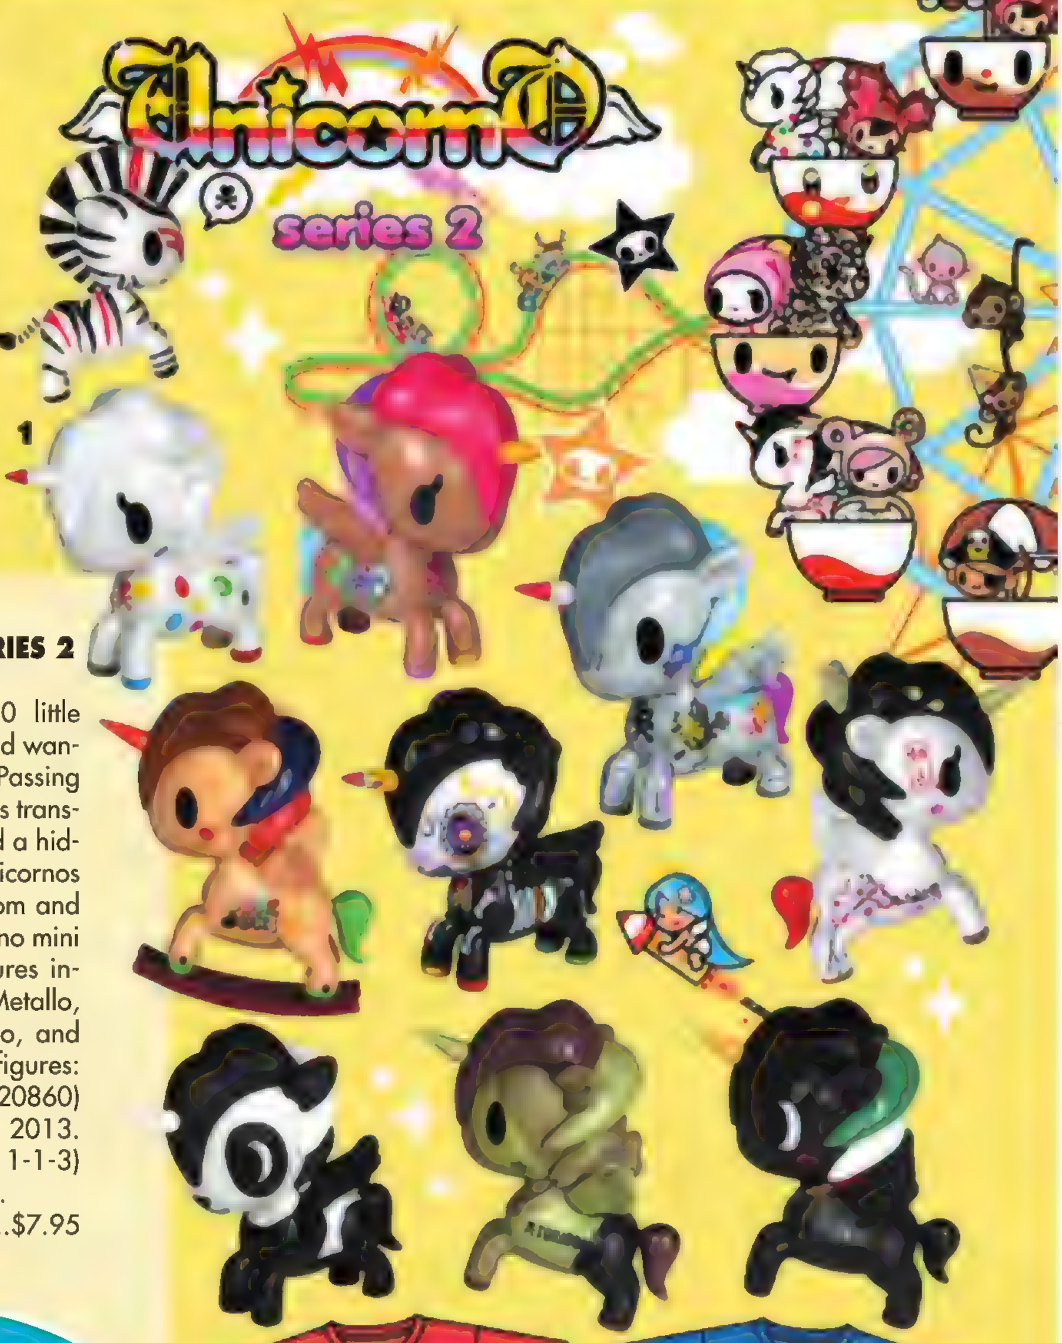
TOKIDOKI means "sometimes" in Japanese. I chose a Japanese word because I love Japan. I love everything from the ultra modern happy face of Shibuya to the serious magic silence of Kyoto.

I chose "sometimes", because everyone waits for moments that change one's destiny. By simple chance or meeting a new person, tokidoki is the hope, the hidden energy everyone has inside that gives us the strength to face a new day and dream something positive, that something magical will happen to us.

Hello, my name is Simone Legno.



1

TOKIDOKI: UNICORNO SERIES 2 MINI-FIGURES

THE HOBBIT: STING SWORD REPLICA

In the Third Age of Middle-Earth, the Hobbit Bilbo Baggins was unexpectedly swept into an epic quest to reclaim the lost Dwarven kingdom of Erebor, which was long ago conquered by the dragon Smaug. Approached out of the blue by the wizard Gandalf the Grey, Bilbo found himself joining a company of thirteen Dwarves led by the legendary warrior Thorin Oakenshield. In this harrowing journey Bilbo and and his company of Dwarves came upon a troll lair in Rhudaur. There they found two Elven swords, Glamdring and Orcrist, and a knife. Bilbo claimed the knife for himself, and it was more of a sword to someone of his stature. He wielded the sword through most of the Quest, famously using it against the giant spiders of Mirkwood to save the company of Dwarves. After Bilbo had slain his first spider he declared, "I will give you a name, and I shall call you Sting." This authentically detailed replica is a reproduction of the actual filming prop. The Sting Sword is 22 1/2" overall, featuring a stainless steel blade, solid metal hilt parts, and an intricately detailed vine adorning the grip. It is presented with a wood wall display featuring graphic motifs from The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey and includes a Certificate of Authenticity. THE AGE OF THE HOBBITS

In an age long ago, the last village of clever, peace-loving Hobbits is attacked and enslaved by the Java Men, komodo-worshiping, dragon-riding cannibals. Now the young Hobbit Goben, along with his father and sister, must seek help from the "giants" (human hunters) to find the Javas' lair and rescue the last surviving Hobbits, Goben's mother among them. In their quest to destroy the Javas, the heroic partnership of humans and Hobbits will transform both species forever in this production from The Asylum starring Stargate's "Teal'c", Michael Judge. MYSTERY SCIENCE THEATER 3000 VOLUME XXV

Since the dawn of recorded history, sacred texts have inspired intellectuals to enlighten the rest of us through their commentaries. To a certain special kind of person — and if you're buying this 25th collection of MST3K pal, you're one of them! — cheesy movies are sacred texts. And who better to help us navigate the occult meanings of B-movies' holiest scriptures than space captives Joel and Mike and their robot companions Tom Servo and Crow T. Robot? Their running commentaries allow us to laugh at inscrutable plots, painful performances, and felonious filmmaking. Here for the funniest study session you'll ever have are four more movies — Robot Holocaust, Operation Kid Brother, Kitten With A Whip, and Revenge of the Creature — unearthed from the ancient caves of Hollywood as interpreted by the long-suffering scholars aboard the Satellite of Love. WRECK-IT RALPH

WRECK-IT RALPH

Walt Disney Animation Studios and Emmy Award-winning director Rich Moore (TV's The Simpsons, Futurama) take moviegoers on a hilarious, arcade-game-hopping journey in Wreck-It Ralph! Ralph (voiced by John C. Reilly of Talladega Nights and Stepbrothers fame) is tired of being overshadowed by Fix-It Felix (voiced by Jack McBrayer of 30 Rock), the "good guy" star of their video game, who always gets to save the day. But after decades of doing the same thing and seeing all the glory go to Felix, Ralph decides he's tired of being the bad guy and takes matters into his own massive hands, setting off on a game-hopping journey across the arcade through every generation of video games, to prove he's got what it takes to be a hero! On his quest, he meets the tough-as-nails Sergeant Calhoun (Jane Lynch of TV's Glee) from the first-person shooter, "Hero's Duty". But it's the feisty misfit Vanellope von Schweetz (Sarah Silverman) from the candy-coated cart racing game, "Sugar Rush", whose world is threatened when Ralph accidentally unleashes a deadly enemy that threatens the entire arcade. LYNDON B. JOHNSON

This November, we will once again be able to exercise our right as American citizens to vote for the next President of these United States. Our Commander in Chief has always been the star of comics and cartoons, from the earliest editorial cartoons and illustrations (most of them quite unflattering in their attempt to point out PotUS' failings) to the explosion of Presidential covers over the past decade. With November 6th just around the corner (get out there and vote, people!), we pay tribute to the great Presidential Comic Book Covers, including some of the best covers featuring our current Prez, Barack Obama, whose term has inspired more comic book covers than any other President in history!

Going back to the 1940s with Franklin D. Roosevelt (who presented Captain America with his iconic shield), the Comics have had a long history of featuring the Commander in Chief in their stories. But putting the President on the cover of a fictional story appears to be something that really started in the turbulent '60s, when putting the President of the United States (POTUS) on the cover became more a thing that creators would do.

Two Presidents who got plenty of cover time were Ronald Reagan, our 40th President…

No other President has inspired such adoration and whimsy as Barack Obama, who has been portrayed as a superhero, barbarian, post-apocalyptic hero, and yes, President of the United States, too!

Be sure to get out there and vote on November 6th! No matter which candidate you're backing, your votes do count and can make a difference. And maybe, depending on how the American people cast their votes, next time around we'll have to include this gentleman in the club…

DOKTORMENTOR
JAIL BABE SURGEON

THE DISTURBINGLY PERVERTED DIARY OF DOKTORMENTOR: JAIL BABE SURGEON VOLUME 1 TP

Shh! Productions

What happens when you combine a Playboy magazine with a horror film and put it in comic book form? It turns out, the result is a strange, hybrid concept that has to be seen to be believed.

Far outside the realm of "normal," Doktormentor isn't anything close to the other comic books you may have read. The titular character, a grotesque mad scientist, is looking to conduct fiendish experiments on the sexy but unlucky inmates serving "hard time" in this all female-prison. Like a strange, late-night cable movie you can't help but watch, this group of half-naked prisoners attempt to avoid the scientist's clutches all while scheming for escape and "entertaining" themselves and each other during their down-time.

You can't take it seriously but the book isn't asking you to. This book is only concerned with fun and some of it is even more so in 3-D! Sure, there are erotic movies, there are monster movies, and there are women-in-prison movies, but when was the last time you heard of an erotic, women-in-prison movie with monsters?

CLASSIC POPEYE #6

IDW Publishing

I was not a Popeye fan growing up. As a kid, I didn't understand what was so appealing about his weird arms, weird voice, or weird girlfriend. So I was completely taken by surprise this summer when I picked up Classic Popeye #1, opened to a page at random, and found myself laughing out loud.

My childhood convictions were at least partially right. Popeye is weird! He's absurd and zany and a little bit ironic. When Popeye finds his Pappy in bed eating a mountain of sweets for "lunch," or when Swee' Pea bursts through a door to pop a traveling salesman in the nose, it's truly, visually funny. This book is full of great visual punchlines that take full advantage of the graphic storytelling format, beautifully reproduced on quality paper stock. Editors Craig Yoe and Ted Adams clearly care about this project, and so will you. Former serious kids of the world, skip your therapist this week and pick up this book. Popeye is tons of fun.

LISA'S STORY: THE OTHER SHOE

Black Squirrel Books/Kent State University Press

There's nothing funny about cancer and I usually didn't find much funny about Funky Winkerbean. Lisa's Story: The Other Shoe surprised me with how much I needed to read it. This collection of Funky Winkerbean daily and Sunday strips focuses on Lisa Moore, a friend of Funky, and her fight against breast cancer, recovery, relapse, and tragic death.

If cancer has hit your family as it has mine, you will have an ever greater appreciation for what Tom Batiuk has accomplished with Lisa's Story. It makes me appreciate those in my family that have survived and remember and miss those who didn't.

Lisa's Story: The Other Shoe from Kent State University's Black Squirrel Books is a book that deserves a place in your library, school library, and your church or synagogue. This storyline shows us all that comics when done right are capable of entertainment and education and can make you care about the characters. In this book there is resource material on breast cancer, including early detection, information sources, support systems, and health care.

MARS ATTACKS THE TRANSFORMERS

IDW Publishing

They're big, they're green, they're from Mars…and they're taking on the Transformers! New from IDW Publishing, Mars Attacks the Transformers.

One of the latest offerings from IDW Publishing continues crossing their popular licensed properties to create new series and new storylines. Nowhere is safe for everyone's favorite robots in disguise as the Autobots and the Decepticons band together against the big-headed space bullies. This peaks my interest because I've been enjoying their new ongoing Mars Attacks series and I've been a long-time fan of their Transformers series.

Are you Team Green or Team Machine? Neither? Well IDW also has ponies. Winning!
